EncompassTM
WORLD PARTNERS

For more than 100 years, Encompass World Partners has embraced its mission to know God and make him known among the least-reached peoples of our world.

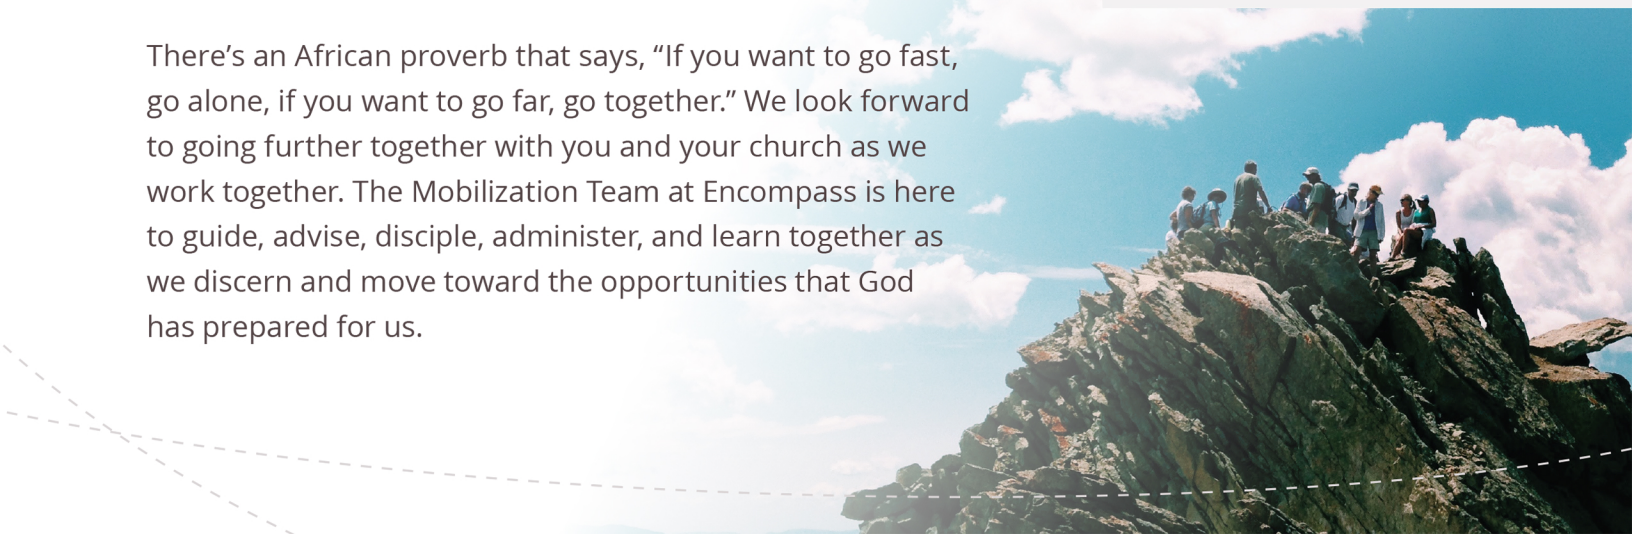

We equip individuals and resource churches, sending people to the field as part of a supportive, global family with a unified mission.

One of our core values at Encompass is the glory of the Church as God's plan for this age. We share a heritage and history with churches like yours that have embraced risk to take the gospel to the least reached. We believe progress in God's global mission happens best when we partner with local churches. That's why we're dedicated to helping you focus, refine, and multiply your church's efforts for greater fruitfulness in the Great Commission.

There's an African proverb that says, "If you want to go fast, go alone, if you want to go far, go together." We look forward to going further together with you and your church as we work together. The Mobilization Team at Encompass is here to guide, advise, disciple, administer, and learn together as we discern and move toward the opportunities that God has prepared for us.

Our Promise

We're dedicated to helping you focus, refine, and multiply your church's efforts for greater fruitfulness in the Great Commission.

Orientation to God's Global Mission

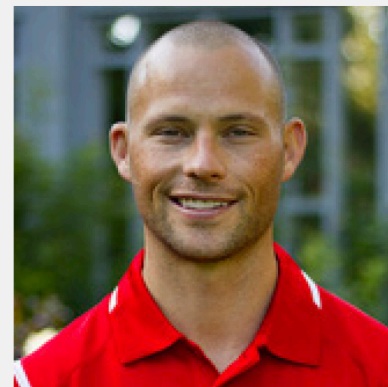

We're committed to orienting your church around sound Biblical mission through the training and mobilization opportunities we offer.

These resources and experiences provide a solid introduction for people who want to explore the world of global missions.

Orienting

"Discovering Global Missions has provided us with a framework and curriculum for sharing God's heart for the nations with people at all levels of spiritual maturity. Young believers have been able to grasp big-picture concepts and begin to see the biblical support for global missions. Mature believers have been able to dive more deeply as they're reminded about key passages and ideas found throughout the biblical storyline. Everyone has been challenged by the stark reality of the state of our present world and the task that remains. All-in-all, we've been blessed to use Discovering Global Missions to help us continue casting a vision for making disciples of all nations."

Training Cross-Cultural Disciple-Makers

We're committed to training and mentoring your potential Global Workers by equipping them as cross-cultural disciple-makers.

The following opportunities provide in-depth experiential learning for those seeking to understand their own calling to global missions.

Internships – Invite your members who want to explore cross-cultural ministry to participate in an internship with Encompass. EncompassWorldPartners.org/Internships

Engage 5 - Send your members to Atlanta for Engage 5 training: our intercultural workshop for future Global Workers focused on being and making disciples, cultural acumen, language acquisition, and teamwork.

Training

“Engage 5 was an incredible learning opportunity in more than one way. I recommend it to anyone considering a future in missions or anyone currently serving in a different cultural environment. It was an incredible way to be involved with the people of another culture, serving them, while learning about cross-cultural ministry at the same time. It really gave me a taste of what cross-cultural ministry would be like. I loved seeing all the diversity in Atlanta and learning about the peoples from various cultures who live there. The experience was wonderful! I have been blessed by the Encompass staff and the team that I grew close to while we trained together.”

Sending Cross-Cultural Disciple-Makers

We're committed to deploying your Global Workers with the full logistical support of our Mobilization Services Network.

Encompass World Partners is prepared to help you mobilize and deploy people into the field, backed by over a century of experience, systems, and administrative support.

Sending Global Workers – Helping you send people to engage in cross-cultural ministry among the least reached on a disciple-making team.

Flexible Sending Structures – Our team is committed to finding adaptable and innovative solutions to the diverse needs of today's global worker.

Sending

"We are all called to glorify God. We've seen Encompass model this through the way they serve us and what they are doing all around the world. We honestly couldn't do what we do without Encompass. We couldn't even anticipate the questions we needed to answer as we prepared for ministry among the Japanese. But Encompass came with knowledge of the challenges we'd face and answers to those questions from their years of experience serving others going into cross-cultural ministry."

Partnerships that Lead to Fruitfulness in the Field

We're committed to creating and sustaining partnerships that open doors for you to engage directly in meaningful cross-cultural ministry.

These opportunities are designed to help your church make a significant impact in a specific ministry initiative.

Support a Global Worker – Your church can actively participate in mission through your prayers and financial gifts.

Give to a Project - Your church can help us achieve a tangible goal by fundraising for a specific project.

Join a Coalition – Your church can participate in a coalition with other churches, pooling wisdom and resources for greater impact in the field.

Partnering

“Our coalitions have given us a new way to connect our local community with God’s work among our brothers and sisters in the country of Chad. The clearly delineated framework and goals bring focus to our prayers, provide an easy way to discern if we are remaining on task with our objectives, help us steward our resources effectively, and heighten our sense of being directly involved in-country. Another blessing has been the opportunity to see tangible results. God has used opportunities to see medical clinics constructed and medical workers and teachers trained as great sources of encouragement for our church community. We look forward to learning where God may move us to partner with his Church across the nations in the coming years.”
